

The Little Chick

by Ruben

Once upon a time there was a little chick named Ruben.

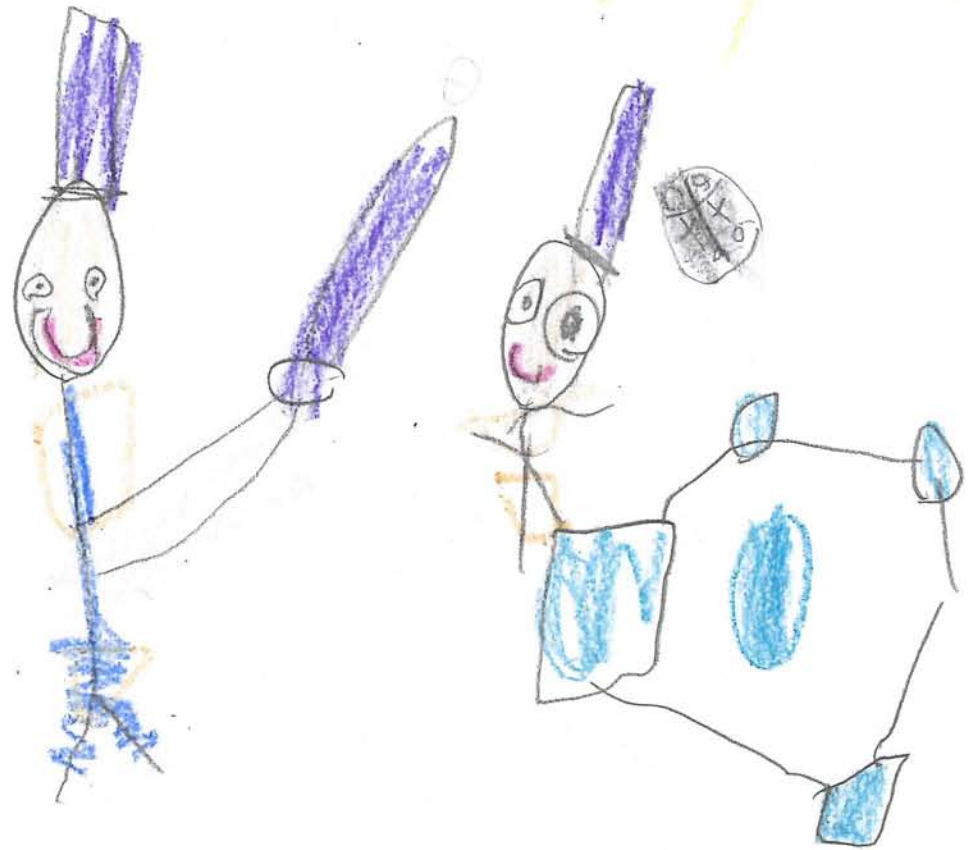

The little chick liked baseball, but he couldn't play because he had little feather chicken arms and he couldn't hold the bat.

One day a man with jellybeans gave the chick a special purple drink. It tasted good and he liked it.

Ruben felt like he was growing up and he turned into a human.

He was happy because now he had hands and could play baseball. So now he could play baseball all day long.