Once there was a tree frog named Leap that lived in a tree with his family. Above him was a flying frog named Flight that lived with his family. Leap never actually met Flight and didn't want to because he was too jealous.

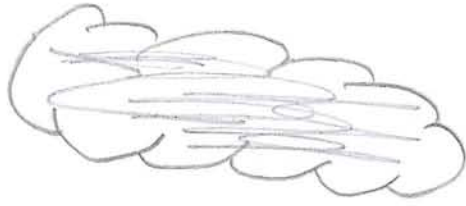

← Flight

Leap

Leap could not jump nor fly, only climb. Flight could not only fly, but he could jump and climb too.

One day Leap fell out of the tree and onto the ground. Right when he was about to climb back up, he got picked up by an owl and taken to its nest. Leap was terrified. He didn't know how to escape. He closed his eyes because he couldn't bare to see what would happen next.

Suddenly, he felt himself get swiftly lifted up. When he opened his eyes he was in midair and realized he was on the back of no other than Flight, his new best friend!

Now the two frogs enjoy playing together. From time to time they'll still take flight together, but now it's purely for fun!
